TOKYO, May 15 — Starting May 14, 2026, Hotel Chinzanso Tokyo will introduce a new photography plan for overnight guests that can be adapted for proposals, anniversaries, and family portraits. The plan includes an English-speaking photographer, with video-inclusive options also available.

Interest in Japan as a destination for romantic travel experiences has grown in recent years. Online searches related to proposals in Tokyo have increased since 2025¹, while milestone and celebration travel continues to rise globally.² Hotel Chinzanso Tokyo has also received an increasing number of inquiries from overseas guests seeking locations for proposal photography and commemorative stays.

The hotel's garden provides a setting that combines seasonal landscapes with historic architecture, including a three-story pagoda and the "Tokyo Sea of Clouds" mist display. Located in central Tokyo, the garden is designed in the style of a traditional Japanese strolling garden.

The photography plan is intended to support guests celebrating personal milestones, like proposals, during their stay. Hotel staff and photographers can coordinate details in advance, including photography routes within the gardens.

Additional arrangements such as flower bouquets, in-room amenities, and restaurant dining are also available upon request and with advance notice.
