

Light and Cool: New “Suzukaze Takeakari” Bamboo Lantern Display Debuts This Summer at Hotel Chinzanso Tokyo

Experience a refreshing summer retreat with glowing lanterns, a cool breeze, and traditional Japanese artistry.

The Suzukaze Takeakari at Hotel Chinzanso Tokyo

TOKYO, Japan — July 8, 2025 — Hotel Chinzanso Tokyo unveils Suzukaze Takeakari (Cool Breeze Bamboo Light), an enchanting bamboo lantern display, debuting as part of its 2025 summer offerings. Created to commemorate the centennial anniversary of the hotel's iconic Three-Story Pagoda, this installation blends traditional Japanese craftsmanship with a serene, cooling ambiance, offering a tranquil escape from Tokyo's intense summer heat.

Set within the hotel's historic garden, Suzukaze Takeakari features 100 bamboo lanterns and pinwheels arranged in a gentle curve leading to the Three-Story Pagoda.

The display symbolizes the pagoda's 100-year history in its current location, following its relocation from Chikurinji Temple in Hiroshima Prefecture. The bamboo used in the display is sourced from the original temple itself, while the pinwheels incorporate motifs inspired by the pagoda's architectural details.

The display draws its name from suzukaze, a “cool breeze” felt around early August, signaling the transition from summer to autumn. Like this poetic breeze, the display is designed to bring moments of cool and calm to all who visit.

As twilight falls, the garden transforms into a luminous wonderland. The bamboo lanterns and pinwheels create a flowing “Milky Way” of light, casting intricate patterns across the lush landscape. The light blends with the garden's foliage to create a calming sensory experience that connects nature and tradition. The lanterns also complement the cooling mist of the Sea of Clouds Splash attraction and shaded garden paths, creating a refreshing atmosphere ideal for evening strolls.

The Suzukaze Takeakari display is part of a larger summer experience at Hotel Chinzanso Tokyo, including:

- The Sea of Clouds Splash: A playful escape near Gojo Waterfall.
- Twilight Bubble Terrace: Sparkling wine and champagne on the terrace.
- Japanese Wind Chimes: 300 traditional wind chimes fill the garden air with the sounds of summer.
- Mejiro Woods Beer Festival: Craft beer and cocktails with views of the Three-Story Pagoda.
- Wagasa Rentals: Traditional Japanese umbrellas for shade and photo opportunities.
